

Robert Caplan

Shareholder & President

rcaplan@scmv.com

619.685.3070

Mr. Caplan is shareholder and president of Seltzer Caplan McMahon Vitek. His practice emphasizes real property law, which encompasses retail, office, industrial, hospitality, residential and mixed-use projects.

Practice Groups

- Banking & Finance
- Business Law
- Real Property Development & Litigation
- Real Property

Education

Mr. Caplan received his B.A., with distinction, from Stanford University in 1957. He earned his law degree from Stanford University in 1960.

Professional Affiliations & Admissions

- State Bar of California
- San Diego County Bar Association
- American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Community Affiliations

- San Diego Symphony Foundation (Board of Trustees)
- La Jolla Playhouse (Board of Directors)

Publications & Speaking Engagements

- Co-author, "Commercial Lease Practice" published by the California Continuing Education of the Bar (1976)
- Participated in several panels on real property issues for the American Law Institute-American Bar Association
- Speaker at programs involving real property matters sponsored by the California Continuing Education of the Bar

Professional Awards & Honors

- Listed in The Best Lawyers in America (1984 – present)